++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Frosty tonight, mainly dry and bright Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry through the evening and overnight with clear skies and frost setting in quickly. A moderate to severe frost in places, especially over lying snow inland, but a veil of high cloud will spread from west. Minimum temperature -8 deg C (18 deg F).

Wednesday:
Dry and cold with hazy sunshine but fading as high cloud increases. Cloud thickening and lowering in west in evening to bring snow, reaching Braemar and perhaps Deeside towards midnight. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain, with snow inland, overnight and Thursday, some travel disruption. Clearing overnight, cold, dry start Friday, but rain, hill snow later and on Saturday morning, though drier, brighter in afternoon.
